

Bridgeport, Conn.,
Wednesday, Dec. 27, 1922.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main Street, Fairfield Avenue, and Cannon Street

The Weather.—Rain or snow today or tonight and Thursday.

A sale of women's high grade shoes, oxfords and pumps at $3.65.

A maker of high grade footwear who wanted to turn stock into money rather than take inventory of them accepted our offer—that is why we are able to show these fine shoes, oxfords and pumps at such an astonishing low price right now.

To this stock specially purchased we have added odd lots from our own—especially lines where sizes are broken and taken a drastic reduction in order to include them in this sale.

On account of this we can not offer all sizes in every style but there are all sizes in the lot and among the hundreds of pairs in this wondrous collection of real high grade footwear there is a pair to fill your special need.

Black suede and dull kid Colonial pumps. Brown suede, tan suede and black suede two strap pumps, all with French heels. Patent leather, black satin and brown brocaded satin cross strap pumps with French heels.

Black satin Colonial pumps—black satin two strap pumps—Patent leather grey trimmed pumps—all with Cuban heels.

Patent leather pumps with bamboo trim and French heels.

Black kid strap pumps with military heels.

Brown kid strap pumps—Brown kid laced oxfords—Brown calf laced oxfords—Brown calf laced boots—Black calf laced boots—all with military heels.

These are just a few of the styles—shoes that were made to sell for $6 to $7.50 or have actually sold for these prices in our own stock—Ready Thursday at $3.65

Main floor, rear

Fashion hats with touch of Springtime

And they are ever so pretty—just like the first modest violet—it's little wonder that women simply can't resist them—they have that charm of freshness and daintiness that always makes a specially strong appeal.

One delightful model hat is of Visca and Canton crepe intertwined on crown and a medium wide brim rather drooping of blistered Canton the entire hat is bisque color.

A rather medium and dignified model of hair cloth—black—has under brim of blue faille silk and trimmed with a unique fancy, adding much style to the picture.

There are combinations of Milan straw and Canton crepe in pastel shades, very dainty indeed and some with a decidedly substantial air about them.

The ancient Greeks were, we are told, always looking for something new—it's a sure thing they did not enjoy the distinction of having Fashion hats for they are decidedly new each week—we are quite sure you'll enjoy seeing this week's contribution—priced at $10.

Second floor, front

Special dinner Thursday - 35c

Choice of:—

Baked country sausage with mashed potato
Individual lamb pie, family style

Fried fillet of haddock with tomato sauce

Combination of cold cuts with potato salad.

Choice of:—

Bread or rolls.

Choice of:—

Cake, pie or pudding.

Choice of:—

Coffee, cocoa, tea or milk.

Entire dinner in our lunch room Thursday for 35c.

Basement, rear

Good staunch middy for children - $1.50.

Splendid quality of white galatea — each garment nicely tailored with rows of white braid on a wide sailor collar and on cuffs.

Some of them are all white and some have either red or blue collar and cuffs.

They are in sizes 6 to 20 years—good value for $1.50.

Second floor, rear

Silk hosiery for all occasions.

The smartest shops have them, the smartest women wear them. They are full fashioned and made of the finest of selected silk.

McCallum silk hosiery in a wide range of styles, weights and colors.

Main floor, left, center.

slim silhouette—These are trimmed with rich silk braid in very trig neat designs.

This collection of fine dresses has been brought together by our ready to wear experts in an effort to hold during this last week of the old year—one more record breaking event as the crowning effort to a most successful year.

How well they have succeeded we will let you judge—Dresses displayed and ready for sale Thursday at $10

Charming—fashionable dresses irresistibly priced—only $10

My what a lot of style and what wondrous fabrics! Hardly seems credible! they are so well made too—the tailoring is as fine as one could ask for at any price.

There are tricotines and Poiret twills—good staunch firm materials that always look well and give so much satisfaction in the way of real service.

Dresses with little touches of color that will appeal to the young miss and good substantial dignified designs that will please the mature matron—and there are dresses specially modelled for the women of full figure—dresses calculated to impart the lines of the

THE HOWLAND DRY GOODS CO.